

Health Care
Doctor
Hospital
Pharmacist
Nurse
Dentist
First Aid
Surgeon
Emergency

Important Examinations (NEET)

The National Eligibility cum Entrance Test (NEET) is an annual medical entrance examination of India. The exam is conducted for admission to MBBS and BDS in several medical colleges across the country.

Doctors, IITians & post graduates of immense teaching experience as teaching faculty

Interesting & interactive classroom environment

Raising levels from basic concepts to NCERT

Teachers and Pedagogy

Multi-level test series

Individual attention on student's performance

Functioning of Batches - FYJC (Science)

Pre College Phase

- 15 April to 10 May
- 4 days a week (3 hrs daily)
- Weekly Test (Level 1)

Post Result Phase

- 01 June to 30 July
- 7 days a week (3 hrs daily)
- 3/4 Test per week (Level 1 & 2)

Regular Phase

- 31 July onwards
- 6 days a week (3 hrs daily)
- Weekends, Public holiday & Diwali vacation (6 hrs)
- 3/4 Test per week (Level 1 & 2)

- FYJC portion to be completed by December end
- Entrance topics based on FYJC to be completed by Jan end

Functioning of Batches - SYJC (Science)

Pre Vacation Phase

- 01 Jan to 30 March
- 4 days a week (3 hrs daily)
- Weekly Test (Level 1)

Vacation Phase

- 10 April to 13 June (7 days break in 2nd week of May)
- 7 days a week (6/7 hrs daily)
- 3/4 Test per week (Level 1 & 2)

Regular Phase

- 22 June onwards
- 6 days a week (3 hrs daily)
- Weekends, Public holiday (6 hrs)
- 3/4 Test per week (Level 1 & 2)

- Entire theory to be completed by August end
- All entrance related topics to be completed by September end

Revision Phase

October - November

- 4 days a week (3/6 hrs daily)
- Recap of XI & XII topics
- Test Series (Level 3)

December

- Preliminary Examination - I
- Entrance Mock Test on Entire portion (Level 4)
- Doubt & Difficulty Session (thrice in a week)

January

- Preliminary Examination - II
- 2 Mock NEET + 1 Mock Entrance Test on Entire portion (Level 5)

Final Phase

March

- Mock NEET Exams followed by analysis & doubt clearing session
- Rank Enhancement skillset to be developed

April

- Mock NEET Exams followed by analysis & doubt clearing session

- Selection will be done on completion of Level 1 & 2 Test Series of FYJC